On common is a detached house designed for three generations of the family, with a separate apartment for grandparents or adult children. Solid of house is simple - it is a rectangular covered by attic and a gable roof. The entrance of the house is accentuated by two columns. From the garden there is a covered terrace. On the ground floor is common for both large vestibule of the entrance to the boiler room. In the part of a separate apartments there is living room with kitchenette, bathroom and bedroom. In the rest of the ground floor there is living room with dining area and comfortable staircase and a kitchen with pantry. On the top floor there are three bedrooms with two bathrooms. One of the bedrooms is a separate part of your house with their bathroom and dressing room. The house can be also adapted by eliminating a separate apartment and turning them into a garage and, for example, office room accessible from the living room.
