Abode house plan, is a comfortable house for a family of 4-5 people. It combines elements of traditional architecture with modern facilities. Attractive, extended solid with dormer windows with bay window, dining room, terrace with pergola, or arcade entrance are combined into a harmonious whole. It gives the impression of stability and peace. The interior of house Abode with a comfortable entrance hall entrance, nice lobby with stairs treatment rooms, a large open living room to the garden - is functional and interesting. In addition, we designed a room on the ground floor and comfortable bedrooms in the attic - with separate apartment parents - complete the whole. The building is large, but its interiors are logically designed and thought out - without wasting space. There is also available mirror version of this house plan.
