Sunny house with garage is a building having simple block, easy and inexpensive to build. Detached house designed with the needs of a family of four. On a small area managed to design all the necessary room in the house and a garage. Living room connected spatially with lounge, dining area and partially open kitchen, thereby creating a large undivided the interior. Bedrooms with bathroom and separate wc create night zone of the house. Exterior appearance of the Sunny house with a garage determine unpretentious detail and well-balanced proportions. Our Studio also has this house plan in variant version, e.g.: without a garage, with a hipped roof. There is also available mirror version of this house plan.
