Sympathetic house plan is a story house with an attic. It is a suitable building for a family of 4 to 5 people. Quiet, restrained silhouette, with big hipped roof accommodates very functional, thoughtful interior. Solutions used in the Sympathetic house plan, such as a large entrance porch, nice spacious hall with comfortable stairs, large boiler room, garage or pantry are very useful. Living room connected with hall and dining room create a nice space, open to the garden through large windows. In the attic, each room has its own dressing room, and large bathroom has been linked with a laundry room over the garage. There is also available mirror version of this house plan.
