Candy house plan is a nice house for a family of four - six people. Candy house plan is a story house with an attic, covered by a gabled roof, partially built into the body of the garage. Architecture of this house is a combination of a modest, economical in detail appearance, while maintaining a solid human scale. Candy house plan has a functional, logically planned interior. On the ground floor there are a spacious living room with a partially separated dining room, which is connected to the semi-open kitchen and exit to the arcades garden and terrace. In the living room there is a place for a fireplace built into the wall. From the living room you can also partly see stairs, starting its run in the hall - next to the entrance. On the ground floor there is also scheduled an extra room - study or a guest bedroom, and utility part with a garage and boiler room. In the attic three large bedrooms, including parents' bedroom with a large walk-in closet, and a very nice family bathroom with corner for laundry and drying room was designed. We have also a mirror-image version of the Candy house plan.
