Edith house is a comfortable family house for a family of 4-5 people. This house has extensive the garage part with an attic that can be finished at a later stage. The house was designed on a rectangular shape covered by a hipped roof with large dormers. To the Edith house the garage part with a large attic for any use was built into. The architecture of the house is traditional, but includes also modern elements such as large glass living room, or finesse support arcades. On the ground floor there is a salon with dining area and a partially open kitchen, hall with ornate staircase, extra room and large utility room, with a large garage and boiler room. At the attic three bedrooms, one with private bathroom and dressing room was designed. The attic can be of course used e.g. for a gym or a sauna. This house is also available in a mirror version.
